

USING A SPACER
DELIVERS UP TO 90%
MORE MEDICATION
TO THE LUNGS

Without a spacer

Most of the medication is absorbed into the back of the throat, rather than breathed into the airways.

With a spacer

A spacer mixes your medication with air, so it is easily delivered to the lungs where it is needed.